Headline:
Mainly dry with some good sunny spells developing.

Today:
Cloud and patchy drizzle, especially in the east, clearing through the morning, otherwise a dry day with some good spells of sunshine developing. Feeling warm in the sunshine, but cooler towards the east coast with a northerly breeze. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening with some late sunshine then long clear spells overnight. However cloudier conditions may return to eastern parts through the early hours. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:
Cloud in the east soon becoming confined to the eastern Borders, where it may linger. Otherwise a mainly dry day with sunny spells, perhaps an isolated afternoon shower in west. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Still some warm sunshine through Friday and the weekend. However it gradually becomes more unsettled with showers becoming more frequent, especially later Sunday when they may be heavy and thundery.
